Important information about procedures for opening a new account. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, street address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

 Attention: Business Lending
 P.O. Box 34157
 Juneau, AK 99803

NOTICE: The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is National Credit Union Administration, 1775 Duck Street, Alexandria, VA 22314-3428.

NOTICE: Income derived from alimony, child support, or separate maintenance payments need not be revealed if the applicant does not want the creditor to consider it in determining the applicant's creditworthiness.

APPRAISAL NOTICE

True North Federal Credit Union (TNFCU) may order an appraisal to determine the property's value and charge you for this appraisal. We will promptly give you a copy of any appraisal, even if your loan does not close. You can pay for an additional appraisal for your own use at your own cost.

In cases where an updated Appraisal or Broker's Opinion is required, applicable fees for the valuation must be deposited and held before TNFCU will order the valuation. These valuation requests will be made by TNFCU staff through approved agents. In all cases, TNFCU will provide you a copy of said valuation no fewer than 3 days prior to the opening and funding of this loan account.
